DINNER $1.00 plus tax

Don Hanson, chairman of the Inter-Club Relations Committee, made further announcement regarding the inter-club meeting to be held on Monday evening, June 19, with this club as host.

The dinner will be at the San Diego Club, our usual meeting place and is to be at 6:30. The price is one dollar plus tax and members are asked to bring their ladies.

Members of nearby clubs will be present and it is expected that we will have a large attendance.

Don Hanson advises that the program is going to be exceptionally good and there will be several features that will make things lively, and all in all, a varied, interesting and highy entertaining program is assured.

The dinner will be strictly informal and it is possible that anyone coming with a Tux might be barred from the meeting or severely fined, so strictly informal is the order of the evening. That MEANS no Tuxedos.

In order to be properly prepared for the number of tables and places, the secretaries of other clubs should phone in their reservations direct to Mr. Sullivan of the San Diego Club at Franklin 6321. Please do this before Monday noon.

As there will be no meeting Tuesday noon, members are urged to be present on this special occasion or if not possible, they then should make up their attendance at some nearby Club during the week.

The Flag Day program went over in a big way and the program was a double feature: one with a fifteen-minute radio skit produced by E. G. Merrill, Jr., with Senator William E. Harper, William Dehnel and Roy French Kidd as actors.

The program was released through the courtesy of radio station KGB and the Club had Mr. Sid Fuller of that station as guest.

As per usual, the playlet was well received and was appropriate to the occasion being entitled "Our Flag."

Promptly at 1:15 the radio program was over and the speaker of the day, Judge Clarence Harden was introduced by Ray Shearer.

Judge Harden in his usual clear manner with well chosen words, spoke on the same subject, "Our Flag" and made a very impressive appeal to all in support of that grand old flag which stands for all that life holds dear.

We are greatly indebted to Clarence for his masterful address, to Sid Fuller for the radio time and to the three members who so cleverly enacted the characters in the playlet written by our Vice-President.

Art Brewer hands us the following:

The prayer below was offered at a recent session of the California State Senate by the Chaplain, Reverend A. Raymond Grant:

THE GAME GUY'S PRAYER

Dear God:

Help me to be a sport in this little game of life. I don't ask for an easy place in the line-up; play me anywhere. You need me. I only ask for the stuff to give you one hundred percent of what I've got. If all the hard drives seem to come my way, I thank you for the compliment. Help me to remember that you won't ever let anything come my way that you and I together can't handle. And help me to take the bad breaks as part of the game. Help me to understand that the game is full of knots and knocks and trouble and make me thankful for them. Help me to get so that the harder they come the better I like it.

And, O God, help me to always play on the square. No matter what the other players do, help me to come clean. Help me to study the Book so that I'll know the rules, and to study and think a lot about the Greatest player that ever lived, and other great players. If they found out that the best part of the game was helping other guys who were out of luck, help me to find it out, too. Help me to be a regular feller with the other guys.

Finally, O God, if fates seems to uppercut me with both hands and I'm laid on the shelf in sickness or old age or something, help me to take that as part of the game, too. Help me not to whimper or squeal that the game was a frame-up or that I had a raw deal.

When, in falling dusk, I get the final bell, I ask no lying complimentary stones. I'd only like to know that You feel that I've been a good, game guy.

Amen.
