"ALL KIWANIS NIGHT"

The "All Kiwanis Night" meeting has come and gone and with it the memories of another gathering of Kiwanians and their wives and ladies.

The attendance of members of nearby clubs helped greatly to make this meeting a success.

The meeting was sponsored by our Club and members were present from La Jolla, Ocean Beach, Oceanside, East San Diego and National City.

The program was well received and our thanks is extended to those taking part. Music was rendered by the Benbough Quartette consisting of Virginia May Mannix, harp; Julia Gardner Gunsallus, violin; Pauline Greenwood Ferguson, cello and Ada Georgia Kelley, piano.

A cello solo by Miss Ferguson and a harp solo by Miss Mannix were beautifully rendered and much enjoyed.

A reading by Miss Betty Crates "The Waltz" was humorous and cleverly read.

The closing feature was the adding of a "Friendship" link to a chain which is now traveling the rounds among twenty-five clubs in this part of the district, our link being the twentieth to be added.

The presentation of this chain was made by Past Lieutenant Governor James W. Mahood of the East San Diego Club to us and we in turn are to make the presentation to the El Centro Club on Friday, June 26, at the Barbara Worth Hotel at noon.

Several members have indicated that they would make the trip and they are advised to confer with the secretary for further details.

Our next week's meeting will bring to us Mr. Alberto M. Campione, manager of Hotel Del Coronado who will talk to us on "Nationalism."

Mr. Campione has had a world of experience and is well qualified to

We can well look forward to an interesting meeting and an informative talk.

FOR THAT VACATION TRIP
GET LIST OF "MAKE-UP"
CLUBS FROM SECRETARY

Members are again urged to consult the secretary for the time and place of meeting of clubs which might be on their traveling or vacation dates.

A complete list of clubs, together with their location, time and place of meeting is on file and the secretary will be glad to work out a schedule for you to make up attendance.

Visitation at other clubs is an interesting and profitable one and members should by all means avail themselves of this privilege.

IT MEANS SO MUCH

Friendship is one of God's great gifts to man. It takes out many a thorn from the pathway of life, it levels the rocky heights of the rugged and steep road of trouble and care and when the shadow falls on the home of a friend, oh, what a wealth of love and sympathy is expressed in that silent, knowing hand-clasp of sincerity and compassion and so I thank the members of this Club individually and collectively for their friendship and that sweet sympathy that helps so much to heal the sharp pains of sorrow at the passing of my beloved wife and helpmate.

"Kiwanis offers unparalleled opportunity for fellowship, leadership training, community service and a better understanding of the complexities of human relationships in a changing world."—Charleston, South Carolina.

"Kiwanis is successful because of its constancy of purpose. Constant attendance and willingness to serve is the secret of success."—Clearwater, Florida.

"The enthusiasm of a live Kiwanis Club is an asset to any community. Kiwanis can only maintain your interest and personal service when you are present at every weekly meeting."—Gainesville, Georgia.

"Kiwanis leads in community development. It creates through education and promotion a high degree of citizenship and a deep sense of responsibility. Kiwanis awakens an entire community to worthy ambitions for civic improvement. A club is a community forum where leaders are proud to appear, knowing they will be received by an intelligent audience."—Ravenswood, Chicago, Illinois.
