NOTES FROM THE 5/17 MEETING & OTHER STUFF...

Persida Drakulich introduced Carol Sasaki to become our newest member. Carol founded the International Humanities Foundation which recently has been working in Indonesia on Tsunami relief. Carol lives in La Jolla. She has two children, David 25 and Crystal 15. Carol attended Washing State University where she earned the MA in International Studies.

We had a another great floral arrangement from Flowers by Coley. After Kizer's opening bid of $2.98 the bidding started in earnest. We found out who was in trouble at home by watching who was bidding, but finally we found that Tim O'Reilly was in the most trouble because he won the arrangement for Thelma with his bid of $60.

Drue Jordan, as chairman of the day, showed us the three pages of information he had concerning the speaker. Drue said that in the interest of time he would not read it all - and then proceeded to read about two and a half of the pages !!!
