Unfortunately, I have no information about the zoo trip. I understand the speaker will be Bill Toone but have no idea what he will be speaking about.

Remember, arrive at the main gate about 11:30 am so we can all go in together. There is no admission and no parking fee. We will lunch at noon in the TREETOPS restaurant.

After the meeting we are free to roam the zoo for the rest of the day.

The meeting started with Bob Shumake trying to explain why the speaker he had invited was not told that we are no longer meeting at the U.S. Grant. Unfortunately, the explanation/excuse was not satisfactory and Bob was fined for his transgression.

Mark Neville announced that he will have a complete report from the Bone Marrow Dive for the July 12 meeting.

Mark Jankowski introduced Father Ochoa from La Gloria Orphanage in Tijuana and presented him with a $500 check from our foundation. Father Ochoa explained that the funds will be used for educational materials and clothes for the children.

John Irons introduced the first recipients of the Zitlau awards. This award will be given annually to UCSD Medical School students. The recipients this year are Johan Hurst and Bahram Khadivi. Each of them received a check for $2500.

John Irons also introduced Lt Ernie Gameng who in turn introduced YN2 Matthew D. Mackillop and the sailor of the year from the Coast Guard Sector San Diego.

The beautiful Flowers by Coley arrangement you see in the photographs was won by Jon Tibbitts for a mere $60 bid. We assumed that Jon was in trouble at home, but in fact he was buying the arrangement for his wife for their anniversary on Friday.
